Republican Meeting In The Town Hall Next Monday Evening

A Republican mass meeting will be held in the town hall on Monday evening at 8 o'clock, under the auspices of the 4-county Women's Republican club, at which a presentation will be made of the candidacy of the various aspirants for public office in this state, and of the situation regarding success at the polls this fall for Willkie and McNary. The speakers thus far announced for this meeting will be Hon. Sinclair Weeks, a member of the Republican national committee from Massachusetts and chairman of its executive committee. Mr. Weeks has been formerly chairman of the state committee, and at one time its treasurer. He also has served six terms as Mayor of Newton; also State Senator Chester Skibinski of Chicopee, an ardent and active Republican, who has the confidence of a large number of our Polish friends. At 5 o'clock in the afternoon the members of the Franklin county women's club will hold a special session for the transaction of business. Supper will be served in the lower room of the town hall from 6 to 7:30 by the social committee of the Congregational church. Tickets should be secured in advance by those expected to attend. The meeting to be held in the town hall at 8 o'clock is open to all and it is hoped that many of our citizens will arrange to attend as this session is the opening gun in the local campaign. Everybody is welcome.

July Rains Plenty

The month of July had plenty of rain. Records kept at Amherst in Greenfield and in Northfield at the seminary barns by George W. Carr, indicate that about five and a half inches of water fell, with the heaviest showers on July 29. This amount of rainfall was the second greatest for the past twelve years for the month of July according to the record. The largest fall of rain was in 1938 when the July fall amounted to over eight inches.

Refugee Needs Now

A good second hand stove, with or without waterfront, is sorely needed in the equipment of the house for our refugees. Anyone having such and willing to contribute should call Mr. Hoehn by phone 166-2. A go-cart in good condition is also needed, as well as a baby high chair.

Be Sure To Register

Public notices have been posted that the local board of registrars will sit at the town hall on Saturday, Aug. 17 from 7 to 9 o'clock in the evening and on Wednesday, Aug. 28 from noon to ten o'clock.

If you are eligible to have your name placed on the voting list and if your name is not on the list, better arrange to call at the first opportunity. The local Republican town committee is making a special effort to have new voters enrolled.

Garden Club Session Approves Final Plans For The Flower Show

A largely attended gathering of members of the Northfield Garden Club was held Monday evening on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lazelle on Glenwood Ave. There was a picnic supper when groups gathered to enjoy a social conversation and watch the flames at the fireplace, as many edibles were prepared. An ideal surrounding was afforded by the beautiful garden of the host and hostess and the views of the spacious hotel lawns. President Goodspeed presided at the business session and the secretary-treasurer, Mr. Deming gave a resume of the events since the last meeting, of the meetings of committees having principally to do with the holding of the coming flower show in the Chateau, on Wednesday and Thursday, Aug. 21 and 22. The display will be for the two days, with hours from 2 o'clock to 10 in the evening. It was voted to make the admission price, twenty five cents, but to issue to members and exhibitors, a card, when their admission was paid, admitting them to any and all sessions for the single payment. These cards are not transferable and must be used by the original owner. Badges will be given in every class for first, second and third awards of merit. Judges and officials for the show have been named and now work begins in earnest for the success of the affair. It will be the best show ever arranged under the auspices of the Garden club. The next meeting of the organization will be Monday evening, Sept. 9 at a place to be announced later. It will be the annual meeting, and a committee to nominate officers for the ensuing year, has been named: Fred S. Merrifield, Miss Amy Hamilton and Mrs. George W. Carr. Before returning to their several homes, the members visited the gardens of Miss Mercy Brann, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Colton and the novelty garden of Philip Porter, where an apple tree in blossom was seen.

The work already in our midst at Hope Home was fully presented and the opening of several of our homes here and at Mount Hermon was made known. It was an important meeting and was open for a full discussion of the facts and responsibilities. In order to effect a permanent organization, a committee consisting of Mrs. Frank H. Montague, Mrs. Robert McDaniel, Mrs. L. P. Goodspeed, Merwin Birdsall, George McEwan and Elliott V. Fleckles and Mrs. Ethel G. Hopkins was named to consider the proposition and propose an organization of a permanent committee to deal with the refugee problem.

Farms Lead Inquiries On Pioneer Valley

A study of 1600 written inquiries produced up to July 20 by the Pioneer Valley association's national advertising, shows 733 requests for data on farms for sale or summer or permanent homes, 300 requests for information on occupied farms that want "summer boarders" and approximately 600 inquiries for hotel accommodations and for general information on this region.

Calling this return "remarkable under present conditions" Miss Elisabeth Shoemaker, executive director of the association, also pointed out that particularly in the case of persons answering the advertisements for farms for sale, "these people know the purchase would involve, not less than a thousand dollars and most of the farms cost much more than this amount. The type of letters we are receiving come from persons able to undertake these investments."

There is an inquiry for a small farm costing not more than $1500 in Northfield. Any local reply may be sent to P. O. Box 244, East Northfield.

The human side of BANKING

BECAUSE we deal in such cold and inflexible commodities as cash, facts and credit, it is perhaps logical to think of banking as being also cold and unbending.

But banking has its human side. The problems of people—real people just like you and your neighbors—enter into almost every action we take and every decision we make. In our daily work we try never to lose sight of this human side of our business.

We think you will like the aura of warmth and friendliness which you will find at this institution.

TRUCK OWNERS WANT FACTS...CHEVROLET GIVES Certified Proof

On the longest test run ever conducted under the supervision of the A.A.A., a stock Chevrolet 1½-ton truck turned in a record performance record. These facts are clearly outlined in a booklet entitled "Certified Proof." Says U. S. News: "You may obtain it from your Chevrolet dealer or write to Chevrolet Motor Division, General Motors, Detroit, Mich."

Chevrolet trucks lead in sales because they have the most desirable balance of power, economy and durability—power to do the job well, economy to do the job at low cost, and durability to stay on the job. That all adds up to value—exceptional value that has kept Chevrolet trucks out in front in sales—leading again in 1940, as they have led year after year. Consider modernizing some of your trucking equipment now—all models and types of Chevrolet trucks are still available at today's low price level.

EDITORIAL

ADVERTISING, THE BUILDER

Of recent years it has been the fashion among radical reformers to question the value of advertising.
The question is easily answered.

Nothing in the world sells until it is known. No successful commodity blunders its own way into store and waits until somebody by some strange chance blunders into buying it, says Nation's Business. If merchants and factory managers had not hired salesmen, and had not placed advertising, our America would still be what it was in 1740, a handful of poor villages and penniless farmers, dotted on the edges of enormous forests.

National distribution, in its simplest terms, means that you can get your favorite foods, beverages, clothes, shoes, cigarettes, soaps, cosmetics, books, magazines and all other manufactured articles, wherever in the country you are.
Bringing this about, in a country 3000 miles wide, and once apparently divided forever by the Rocky mountains, has been no child's play. It would never have taken place without national advertising.

Railroads and steamship lines and highways provided the means of transport. But what is the use of transporting goods from a factory in Delaware to a store near a family in Oregon if the goods are not known and, therefore, are not bought?

Advertising is the dissemination of news about better and less costly goods than people could make for themselves at home.

NOT DEBATABLE

Long-winded statements concerning possibilities of Japan and Germany setting up "their own imitation Monroe Doctrines" seem to answer none of the questions.

Secretary of State Hull took the short cut when he advised Hitler that the American Monroe Doctrine is not open to discussion —that it means just exactly what it says! That was straight shot because the Monroe Doctrine a chip on Uncle Sam's shoulder which Europe and Asia are warned they must not attempt to knock off.

Secretary Hull understands the difficulties of the Western Hemisphere, and he is using all the forces of the Monroe Doctrine to hold the 21 American Republics together, even though some of them are ill-mannered and mostly anything except good neighbors.
This solidarity appears to be for our own sake as well as for the Latinos.

You know that the value of new home building in Massachusetts was 26 per cent greater during the first half of 1940 than in the same part of 1939 . . . Per capita income of Massachusetts people in 1938 was $656, which was 27 per cent above the national average . . . The value of merchandise imports entered at the Massachusetts customs district during the first five months this year totaled $69,000,000, 17 per cent larger than a year ago; exports were $11,330,000, an increase of 40 per cent . . . Massachusetts stands first among the states in manufacture of at least 25 major lines of products, of which shoes, woolen goods, leather-er, rope and twine, automobile cloth, envelope, rubber shoes, paint brushes and razor blades are a few . . . Within 500 miles of the center of Massachusetts are found 39 per cent of the population of the United States, 40 per cent of all the manufacturing plants, 54 per cent of the nation's industrial wages and salaries, 63 per cent of the sources of United States income taxes, 70 per cent of the total savings deposits . . .
Airplane passenger transportation to and from Boston increased 70 per cent during the first 6 months of 1940, compared with the same part of 1939. The largest line carried nearly 39,000 passengers . . .
Record of referendum ballots held in Massachusetts shows that usually the plan of limited town meetings closely represents the wishes of the townspeople. Latest of instances was the ballot just taken in Lexington, which upheld the town meeting in its refusal to permit amendment of the zoning law to permit an apartment house project.

Salmon Pies Are Seasonable
By Frances Lee Barton

SALMON pies are seasonable — and good too. Here is a recipe that does not call for a single item that cannot be obtained at the corner store. In fact you probably have everything on hand without ordering — so why not try this delicious salmon pie today?

Salmon Pie

1 cup diced celery; $\frac{1}{4}$ cup boiling water; 2 cups flaked canned salmon; $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon salt; dash of pepper; 1 tablespoon minced onion; $\frac{1}{4}$ cup milk; 1 tablespoon melted butter.

1 cup sifted flour; 1 teaspoon double-acting baking powder; $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon salt; 3 tablespoons butter or other shortening; 6 tablespoons milk (about).

Parboil celery in water 5 minutes, or until slightly tender.
Combine with salmon, salt, pepper, onion, milk, and melted butter.
Turn into greased 9-inch pie plate.

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift again. Cut in shortening. Add milk gradually, stirring until soft dough is formed. Turn out on slightly floured board and knead 10 seconds, or enough to shape.
Roll dough $\frac{1}{4}$ inch thick; with sharp knife make slits to permit escape of steam. Fit over salmon, pressing edge of dough and pie plate together with floured fork.
Bake in hot oven (450° F.) 30 minutes. Serve 6.
